You are hereby sentenced to probation for a term of:

3 YEARS

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
7. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327, 3663, 3663A, and 3664. (check if applicable)
8. ☒ You must pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013.
9. ☒ If this judgment imposes a fine, you must pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.
10. ☒ You must notify the court of any material change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution.

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached pages.

DEFENDANT: MARION TILLION BECK
CASE NUMBER: 1:23-CR-00001-001-TMB

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
11. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

DEFENDANT: MARION TILLION BECK
CASE NUMBER: 1:23-CR-00001-001-TMB

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including authorization to conduct credit checks, and must not incur any new debts or apply for credit without the prior approval of the probation officer. The U.S. Probation Office may share any financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.
2. You must pay any fine or restitution in accordance with the Court's orders.
3. During the term of supervision, you must, when eligible, apply for the Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend (PFD) and must apply 100% of the PFD toward any outstanding restitution or fines owed in this case.
4. The defendant shall relinquish her Mariner License to the United States Coast Guard.
5. At the direction of the probation officer, you must obtain a substance abuse assessment and participate in any recommended outpatient treatment. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.). The treatment program must be approved by the United States Probation Office, and the program may include testing to determine whether you have reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. At the direction of the probation officer, you may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program.
6. You must participate in a mental health assessment, as directed by a probation officer, and participate in an outpatient mental health treatment program as determined necessary by a medical or mental health professional. You must follow any treatment directions of the treatment provider. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.). At the direction of the probation officer, you may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program.
7. The defendant shall not operate any vessel or motor vehicle without prior approval from a physician.
8. Location Monitoring: You must participate in a location monitoring program for a period of 90 days within the first 9 months of supervision and must abide by all technology and program requirements. At the direction of the probation officer, you may be required to pay for all or a portion of the location monitoring program, and you are to abide by the following restriction on your movement:
 - ☒ Home Detention: You are restricted to your residence at all times, except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities preapproved by the probation officer.
